

Short description

Since 1997, the advertisement magazine TruckMarket has been published in Germany and abroad, giving you an overview of current offers of used commercial vehicles (trailers, lorries, construction vehicles, etc.) every 14 days.

TruckMarket Mega-Combi: Every advert of the printed issue will be published on the Internet database at www.truckmarket.de as well as in the digital e-paper at the same time, automatically and without additional charge. Every time you book an advert, you will obtain three services at one attractive price, thus securing your customers' attention in every possible way. The target group of TruckMarket are self-driving traders as well as all companies and persons purchasing used commercial vehicles.

Short characteristics

VerkehrsRundschau A is the weekly independent magazine for transport and logistics. Regardless of transport type, it is aimed at all decision makers in all companies involved in organizing logistics supply chains: carriers, haulage contractors, and logistics service providers.

VerkehrsRundschau B is published 8x per year as the official newsletter of the professional organization of registered keepers of vehicles.

VerkehrsRundschau C is published 12x per year as the newsletter of the Technical Inspection Authority as well as the newsletter of the German federal association for economy, transport and logistics.

VerkehrsRundschau reports on logistics, politics, legal and tax issues, management, markets & companies, IT & communications, and tests & technologies.

It offers a range of topics including news and personalities, trend topics, check lists, guidebooks, independent vehicle tests, and product and market overviews.

VerkehrsRundschau also includes an online service, a daily newsletter, the event academy, special publications, and a literature program.
